Cedar City Historic Preservation Commission presents

Leap into the Past:

Learn how to preserve family memories and share your stories and images of Cedar City

Seminars Include

10 am  Gone But Not Forgotten
A photographic history of Cedar City’s Main Street

11 am  Preserving Family Treasures
Discussion and advice from local experts on preservation methods

Noon  Main Street Stories
Four prominent locals will sit around the “campfire” and swap stories about Cedar City (locals TBD)

1 pm  Disaster Recovery for Family Papers
A hands-on demonstration of recovery and drying techniques

Leap into the Past is a FREE event for residents to learn how to preserve family collections and documents, share photographs, and record stories of life in Cedar City.

Bring your old photos, experts will help scan and archive them.

Call the Visitor Center (435-586-5124) to schedule a time to record personal histories and memories.

All photos and stories will be archived at SUU Special Collections for future generations to enjoy.

February 29th, 10 am - 2 pm | FREE
Cedar City Visitor Center, 581 North Main St.